

MORTON MUSEUM
of Collierville History

2018 EXHIBITION SCHEDULE

The Volunteers: Americans Join WWI

December 18, 2017 - March 9, 2018

American volunteer organizations contributed immensely to the well-being and welfare of American men and women serving the American military in WWI, but also to countries around the globe. This special exhibition produced with AFS Intercultural Programs shares their inspirational stories.

Related Programs

Lunch n' Learns
Spotlight Saturday, February 10th
Over Here, Over There

Visiting from the National WWI Museum & Memorial

How It Works: Collierville's Public Works

April 6 - June 1, 2018

Ever wonder where your water comes from? Or what happens to all your trash? Municipal Public Works divisions provide necessary infrastructure that is part of citizen's daily lives. Explore the history, engineering, and technology that goes in to the work of Public Works.

Related Programs

Lunch n' Learns
Spotlight Saturday, April 21st

Finding Center by Alisa Free

June 12- August 3, 2018

Collierville artist Alisa Free creates abstract mixed media work using color, layering, and texture. Free's work is inspired by mood, shape, found objects which are all reflected in this exhibition - a true manifestation of expression.

Related Programs

Shelby East Flower Show, June 13th
Kid's Summer Workshops
Adult Summer Workshops

The American Flag

September 1 - October 19, 2018

Take a journey through the history of the American Flag beginning in 1777. This exhibit reveals the values of the American flag and the flag a symbol of freedom, courage, and determination.

Related Programs

Spotlight Saturday, September
Lunch n' Learn

Created by the Knights of Columbus No. 3048

Open Tuesday - Saturday 10:00am - 4:00pm. Admission is always Free

196 N. Main Street
Collierville, TN 38017
901/457-2650

www.ColliervilleMuseum.org

Follow us

